INSURANCE SEMINAR AT UM WED.-FRI.

MISSOULA---

Carl G. Stevens, of San Antonio, Texas, president of Professional Sales Associates, will discuss various phases of professional insurance relations during the 1969 Agency Management Sales Seminar Wednesday through Friday at the University of Montana.

Another highlight of the three-day meeting, which is sponsored by the Montana Insurance Education Foundation (MIEF), is a special meeting of MIEF members from 9-11:30 a.m. Wednesday at the University Center.

George L. Mitchell, UM administrative vice-president and MIEF president, will preside at the meeting. He will lead discussions on upcoming MIEF research projects and the education program for the coming year.

Stevens will discuss various segments of the insurance sales picture during sessions from 11:30 a.m. Wednesday through 1 p.m. Friday at the Center. He also will provide material for Wednesday and Thursday evening study sessions.

Also on hand for the seminar will be O. E. "Sonny" Omholt, Helena, state insurance commissioner, and Tom Maddox, Helena, MIEF executive director.

Final registration and credentials for attending the seminar may be obtained at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday at the University Center.

A get-acquainted luncheon for those attending the seminar is slated for noon Wednesday at the Center.
